Mr. Kesselman,

Thank you for your inquiry. I was at a show in Maine over weekend and extended it into a buying trip so delay in answering.

Enclosed are the four pieces of rare gold in my ad. As you can see the 1877 $5.00 is a nice XF. I am willing to accept your offer of $300.00 on this piece. I will take $400.00 for the other 3 pieces. Should be good value.

Sincerely,

Frank Barrett L.

Dear Mr. Kesselman: Thanks for your letter and your "key", on the 1856-Ss--next time I go to the safety box--I'll try to check thru what I have.

No, I wouldn't care for an 1867-S $10 in "fine". Don't think I'll ever buy a "fine" again. I have had a few in past years--but disposed of them, for a better grade coin. Nor would I care to trade down--in my coins--from a P to an S--in the 1863 eagle and the 1865 quarter eagle. The Civil War years are favorites of mine. Course, I have an 1863-S quarter eagle--I felt I couldn't afford an 1863 proof--but the rest of my 1861/2/3/4/5 are P mints--I have the gold dollars--they are P--not the "fancy" D mints etc. I do have an 1864 brill., proof, quarter eagle--and my 1863 half eagle, is almost a "gem". Nearly uncir., or about as uncir., as one can get this coin in--it has plenty of mint lustre around the Stars and the Lettering. 1863 is a favorite date on mine, too. --it was our mother's birth year. Grandpa had already enlisted in the Civil War--had been away 6 months,--when she came along. Grandpa enlisted in Union Army 189th., Illinois Infantry--served 1862 to 1865 and released when the Army was released.

Yes--1815 is a "rugged" year for the gold collector--I use an 1815 Spanish Doubloon, Mexico City mint--for the date--ending the War of 1812, and for 1822--I use an uncirculated half dollar. Larger than the 1822 quarter and not so expensive. Not too much happened in the year 1822--Moore's "Immortal Poem"--The Night Before Christmas--that will never die. But 1823--Pres., Monroe., and the Monroe Doctrine! I have a beautiful, uncir "gem", 1823 half eagle--with all the mint lustre from an A.N.A Sale, Cleveland, Ohio, 8/30/1954, at $145.

(over)

I have another coin, that would probably appeal to you, a superb, 1876 "gem" Proof, eagle, from the Davis-Graves Sale, 4/9/1954, cost me all of $225. I should have had it at $215--I argued with Morton (uncle) Stack--after the Sale--he (I felt grabbed a "bid", out of the air--and pushed it to me at $225--he said he would take it off my hands--at $225--and "settle" the question--so I kept still, and kept the Lot. It's a "honey"--the date of the Battle of the Little Big Horn--and Custer--lost the lives of his men--and himself.

By the way--I do have an 1863-S eagle, also.

There are only 3-1822 half eagles known--as I understand it. I "heard", 3/4 years ago--Kagins offered $100,000 for the only one of the 1822s, that might be "jarred loose"--but the holders of the 2 in private hands--are rich, too.

Write again, and I remain,

Sincerely yours,

James F. Lindsay

Dear Stan. [Dale

Send the 1890
as I have no proof gold in my collection. Dont be shocked at all the notes on the 1834
envelope as I did research on this date at the library. Its a good type!

Thanks,
Dale

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

I received your letter today and thank you for pricing your material. Both pieces in X7 seem priced very reasonably and I would like to see them. I could probably purchase the 1911-D now and would want you to hold the X7 1915-S for me for about 30-60 days. Would it be possible to send both pieces for my inspection? If I like both pieces I'll go ahead & buy the 1911-D and send back the 1915-S with the understanding that I'll purchase the coin within 60 days. Of course, I'll pay all postage & I would be willing to pay a small service charge for your holding the 1915-S. I don't think I would be interested in the X7 1915-S at the time as the X7 is priced so close. Thanking you for your consideration. Sincerely,
 D. L. Vetter
